Welcome to Michigan's DRAFT Grade Level Content Expectations for Social Studies

The performance statements contained in this document represent the work of classroom teachers, curriculum specialists, academicians, and the Michigan Department of Education consultants. They are meant to provide teachers with an outline of learning expectations and will be used to drive grade level assessments for the next several years. They by no means represent an entire “curriculum” of learning social studies, nor do they give guidance as to how instruction should be designed or delivered. The craft of instruction is in the hands of the professional educators.

The DRAFT Grade Level Content Expectations (GLCE) that you will see in this document are being distributed for the purposes of review and comment only. It would be premature to make any curricular or material selection decisions based on its contents. When the review period concludes, final changes will be made. The GLCE for Social Studies will then be presented to the State Board of Education for their approval. Following the approval of the State Board of Education, the revised GLCE will be made available for your use.

Social Studies

Social studies is the integrated study of the social sciences to prepare young people to become responsible citizens. Responsible citizens display social understanding and civic efficacy. Civic efficacy is the readiness and willingness to assume citizenship responsibilities and to make informed and reasoned decisions for the public good as citizens of a pluralistic, democratic society in an interdependent world.

The social studies curriculum for any grade level should be designed to assist students in making continuous progress toward meeting the standards for social studies contained in the Michigan Curriculum Framework. All the standards are pursued in the curriculum from kindergarten to graduation. The Content Standards and Benchmarks represent the full scope of the social studies curriculum. The language of the GLCE is the language of the benchmarks for social studies included in the Michigan Curriculum Framework. You should recognize the GLCE as a direct reflection of the work social studies educators have undertaken since the adoption of the Michigan Curriculum Framework benchmarks for social studies in 1995.

Grades 9-12—Geography and Global Issues Strand

An integrated approach to creating learning opportunities within the discipline of geography should include history, civics, economics, inquiry and decision making. The added dimensions of current events and persuasive civic writing will add contextual depth.

Persuasive Civic Writing Scoring Guide

The Persuasive Civic Writing Scoring Guide has been in use since 1999. It is the basis for scoring the Persuasive Civic Writing question on the MEAP High School Test. It will not change. Teachers are encouraged to use this scoring guide with their students. Using the scoring guide when writing about public issues in the classroom, facilitates students' use of it during testing.

One point will be awarded for the successful inclusion of each of the following elements:

- a clear and supported statement of your position;
- supporting information using a core democratic value of American constitutional democracy.
- supporting knowledge from history, geography, civics (other than the core democratic values), or economics (it is not enough to state only your opinion);
- supporting information from the Data Section; and
- a credible argument someone with the opposite point of view could use and an explanation that reveals the flaw in his or her argument.

Some Core Democratic Values of American Constitutional Democracy

Core democratic values are the fundamental beliefs and constitutional principles of American society. These values unite all Americans. They are expressed in the Declaration of Independence, the United States Constitution, and other significant documents, speeches, and writings of the nation.
